Everyone will be raised

“the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.”
(John 5:28-29)

“I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust”
(Acts 24:15)

Temporary gives way to the eternal

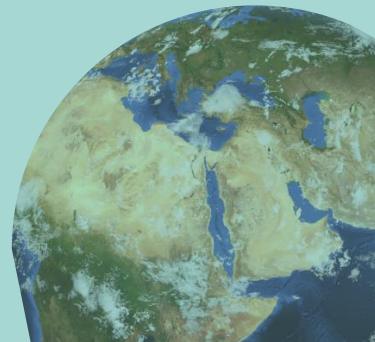

Everyone will be raised

Everyone will be judged

“Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead.” (Acts 17:30-31)

Temporary gives way to the eternal

Everyone will be raised, judged...

Everyone will be separated

³¹ “When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.³² “All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats.”
(Matthew 25:31-33)

Temporary gives way to the eternal

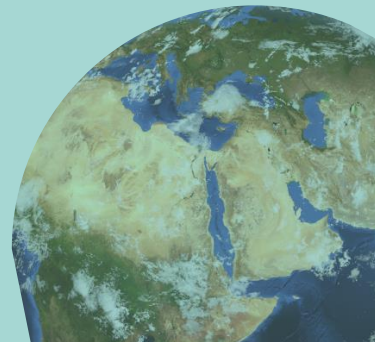

Everyone will be raised, judged...

Everyone will be separated

“This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels. He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power on the day he comes to be glorified in his holy people and to be marveled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.”
(2 Thessalonians 1:7-10)

Temporary gives way to the eternal

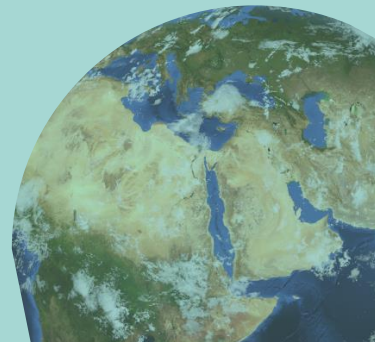

Everyone will be raised, judged...

Everyone will be separated

“¹ “Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. ² In My Father’s house there are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.” (John 14:1–3)

Temporary gives way to the eternal

I have the courage to be holy

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed.

¹¹ Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, ¹² waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! ¹³ But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴ Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (2 Peter 3:10–14)

I have the courage to be holy

² Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. ³ And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (1 John 3:2–3)

I have patience to keep going

¹⁶ So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, ¹⁸ as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

¹ For we know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
(2 Corinthians 4:16–5:1)

Our Place in the World is Temporary and what is the measure of my days;

let me know how fleeting I am!
