

An open Bible lies on a light-colored wooden surface. A person's hands are visible at the top, turning a page. The Bible's pages are filled with text, some of which is highlighted in yellow. A pencil is positioned to the right of the Bible. Overlaid on the center of the image is the text "GIVE ME THE BIBLE" in large, bold, orange letters. The text is split across two lines: "GIVE ME THE" on the top line and "BIBLE" on the bottom line.
